COSMEO HELPS KIDS EXPLORE THE FUN OF SUMMER

Online Learning Service Provides Engaging Summer Activities For Kids of All Ages

Silver Spring, MD (June 26, 2006) – Whether it’s a virtual road trip to the national parks or fast facts to complement the latest summer movie, Discovery Communications’ COSMEO, the online learning service for kids, provides a new way to kick off the summer with COSMEO Summer Explorations. Beginning June 26, 2006, COSMEO users will find fun, interactive activities for every grade level throughout the summer, plus a range of other summer projects that stimulate learning at www.cosmeo.com.

COSMEO’s summer explorations, which are highlighted in a special section on the homepage, include activities designed to keep learning fresh during the lazy summer months. The site also features a “Hotbox” of other summer learning activities, including animated stories for younger kids, back yard science projects, a screening room with video content that adds dimension to the latest summer movie, and much more.

Each summer exploration will help kids take advantage of COSMEO’s 30,000 educational videos, 15,000 interactive quizzes, 200 brain games, and other educational articles and materials. COSMEO’s summer features will also help kids embrace learning opportunities when they travel on family vacations, discover new ways to celebrate holidays such as the Fourth of July, and explore their own interests in greater depth.

COSMEO users can log into their accounts at www.cosmeo.com to access the COSMEO summer activities. New users can access the games and other COSMEO learning tools by signing up for a free 30-day trial. After the trial period, COSMEO is available for the introductory price of $9.95 per month or $99 per year.
