Funds For Learning Unveils New Version of *E-rate Manager

Online Tool Assists Schools and Libraries in their Pursuit of E-rate Funding

EDMOND, OKLA. (June 28, 2010) – Funds For Learning, the nation’s leading E-rate compliance services firm, announces the latest release of E-rate Manager™. The updated version offers improved features to enhance the user experience, including a redesigned interface that allows easier and more efficient access to critical E-rate data, reports and compliance tools.

Schools and libraries turn to E-rate Manager for assistance with their E-rate funding requests and commitments. The web-based tool enables applicants to generate E-rate forms and paperwork, track pending applications, receive notifications of upcoming deadlines, and stay compliant with document retention requirements. The E-rate program provides more than $2.25 billion annually to schools and libraries nationwide, and is the single largest source of recurring K-12 technology funding in the country.

“The redesigned interface provides quicker access to E-rate Manager’s advanced features,” said Brian Stephens, Senior Systems Analyst for Funds For Learning. “Navigation is now much more consistent, and the overall look and feel of the website is greatly improved. These enhancements are an example of our continuing efforts to help education organizations secure vital technology funding through successful participation in the E-rate program.”
